PROFILE

Marwadi University Liberia Student (MULSU) is a student organization that was established in 2021 at Marwadi University in India. The organization was founded with the aim of providing a platform for students from Liberia who are studying at Marwadi University to come together, connect, and collaborate with one another.

Initially, MULSU was led by an Interim Leadership headed by Fredrich. The Interim Leadership played a crucial role in laying the foundation for the organization by setting up the necessary structures and processes. They also organized various events and activities to promote the organization and its objectives.

Later on, MULSU went through a democratic election process and elected its first democratic leadership in 2021. Mr. Prince M. Kerdiah became the first democratically elected president of MULSU. The democratic leadership brought a new level of energy and enthusiasm to the organization. They were committed to promoting the interests of Liberian students at Marwadi University and fostering a sense of community among them. One of the most significant events organized by MULSU was the celebration of Liberia Independence Day in July 2022. The event was a huge success and brought together Liberian students and other members of the Marwadi University community to celebrate Liberia's independence.

On May 12, 2023, MULSU held its second election, and Mr. Leo Morris Harris was elected as the second President of the Organization. The second election was a testament to the democratic values and principles that MULSU upholds. Mr. Harris is committed to continuing the good work started by his predecessor and taking the organization to new heights.

In conclusion, Marwadi University Liberia Student (MULSU) is a thriving student organization that has made significant strides since its inception in 2021. Through its various events and activities, MULSU has succeeded in creating a strong sense of community among Liberian students at Marwadi University. The organization's commitment to democratic values and principles has enabled it to elect effective leaders who are dedicated to promoting the interests of Liberian students at the university.
